Auto Burglary

On 11/26, security from an apartment complex on Quantum Dr reported multiple subjects attempting to break into vehicles in the parking garage. The subjects were seen fleeing the scene on foot. Officers responded, locating seven auto burglary victims and one dumped stolen vehicle. This case remains under investigation. #231126006 through #231126014

Battery

On 11/22, officers responded to a victim bleeding from the arm and screaming for medical assistance on the 41000 block of Albrae St. Fremont Fire Department responded to provide medical aid. The victim had been in a physical altercation with a subject, but the stab wound was not consistent with an intentional stabbing. There were also several sharp objects near where the altercation occurred. Officers located the subject in an RV nearby. Witnesses advised that the subject was the primary aggressor in the altercation, and officers arrested him. The victim was taken to a regional hospital for non-life-threatening injuries. #231122007

Brandishing a Weapon

On 11/22, multiple callers reported a subject at a grocery store on Mowry Ave brandishing a pocketknife. The subject had also been throwing groceries and damaged the store's floral display. The subject fled the scene on foot, but officers located him nearby and arrested him. #231122028

Evading Arrest

On 11/27, an officer located a vehicle associated with an attempted auto theft in a nearby city. The vehicle was later determined to be an unreported stolen vehicle. The officer tried to stop the vehicle, but it continued fleeing at a high rate of speed. This case remains under investigation. #231127004

Reckless Driving

On 11/23, an officer was driving on I-880 when he observed a subject driving more than 110 miles per hour, weaving in and out of traffic, and nearly colliding with several vehicles. The officer followed the vehicle to conduct a traffic enforcement stop. Near Stevenson Blvd, the vehicle suddenly turned to drive across all lanes of I-880, causing several other vehicles to brake abruptly to avoid being hit. The subject vehicle took the exit and started to accelerate, but yielded in a parking lot after the officer activated his emergency lighting equipment. The driver said he was running late to his child's birthday party and knew the officer was attempting to pull him over. Officers arrested the driver. #231123008

Robbery

On 11/24, officers responded to an armed robbery that had recently occurred at a liquor store on the 4900 block of Stevenson Blvd. A subject threatened the clerk with a firearm and took more than $1,000 in cash from the register and another employee's purse. The subject fled in a vehicle. This case remains under investigation. #231124028

On 11/25, officers responded to a report of a robbery at a department store on Osgood Rd. A subject had threatened the service desk associate, telling her that he had a gun. The associate surrendered several thousand dollars in cash. The subject fled in a vehicle. #231125005

Sideshow

In the late evening of 11/24, dispatch received calls regarding sideshow activity in the Gateway Blvd and Bayside Pkwy area. Approximately 200 vehicles had taken over the intersection, and some subjects were pointing lasers and setting off fireworks. Numerous officers responded based on well-established response plans, and the group began to disperse in various directions. Officers utilized camera technology to track sideshow participants throughout the city actively. Patrol units followed multiple groups throughout the city until they were pushed to northbound I-880. Officers recovered a stolen vehicle from the original sideshow location. #231125001
