Assault with a Deadly Weapon

On 1/19, a tenant (subject) at an apartment on Irvington Ave threw tools at his downstairs neighbor. He chased the neighbor and the neighbor's toddler with a wooden stick, then confronted another neighbor and punched him. The subject made threats against the apartment manager if she contacted the police. The apartment manager reported the subject a few days afterward, and officers arrested the subject.

#240119039

On 1/21, an officer responded to an assault at a hospital on Paseo Padre Pkwy. The victim was walking to his car with a friend when three subjects struck the victim with a bottle and beat him. This case remains under investigation. #240121030

Battery

On 1/16, a group of teenagers were confronted by a subject inside a store on Stevenson Blvd. The subject battered and choked the two victims, then fled before officers arrived. The victims were medically cleared and went home with their parents. This case remains under investigation. #240116023

Carjacking

On 1/21, officers located a vehicle that had been carjacked the day before at a motel on Fremont Blvd. Two subjects had taken the vehicle at knifepoint. Three subjects were loitering around the vehicle, two of whom matched the description of the carjacking suspects. Officers conducted a car stop and arrested the three subjects. #240121010

Clandestine Lab

On 1/16, officers responded to an explosion at an apartment on Waverly Ter. Officers found the apartment abandoned but detected an unknown chemical odor. There was extensive damage to the apartment; the location was a clandestine lab and had been used to manufacture illegal drugs. Some surrounding residences were evacuated, and a contractor completed the cleanup effort. #240116013

Fremont Police Week In Review

January 16, 2024 - January 22, 2024

Grand Theft

On 1/16, officers responded to a grand theft on the 35000 block of Terrace Dr. Multiple subjects stole several tools from the victim's work truck. When confronted, the subjects fled in a vehicle and struck the victim during the escape. The vehicle was identified as a stolen vehicle. It was later stopped by the Alameda County Sheriff's Office in Oakland, and two subjects were arrested. Both subjects were juveniles, and after being booked at Fremont Jail, the two were released to family members. #240116012

Mental Health Evaluation

On 1/20, an officer conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle driving recklessly near Deep Creek Rd and Ariel Rd. The driver exited the vehicle and challenged the officer to arrest him. He then told the officer to shoot him and expressed suicidal thoughts. More officers arrived and detained the subject. He was placed on a mental health hold. #240120001

Robbery

On 1/22, officers responded to an in-progress robbery at a grocery store on Walnut Ave. Six subjects were stealing items, and when confronted, one brandished a bat and threatened employees. The subjects fled before officers arrived, but officers located one subject and arrested him. #240122020

On 1/22, officers responded to a robbery at a convenience store on Central Ave. Three subjects were arrested in this case. For additional details, please refer to our press release: January 26, 2024, Arrest Made in Convenience Store Robbery Series - nixle.us/F5E2P

Vandalism

On 1/22, officers responded to a report of vandalism at a fast-food restaurant on Ardenwood Blvd. A subject was yelling and cursing at the cashier. He left the restaurant but returned with a hammer and smashed the store's two registers. He was detained and arrested by a neighboring police department. #240122001
