Armed Robbery

On 2/10, officers responded to a cigarette store on Fremont Blvd that had been robbed at gunpoint. Two subjects used a firearm to threaten the clerk, then took cigarettes, other merchandise, and cash. This case remains under investigation. #240210031

Battery/Vandalism

On 2/11, officers responded to a victim who was slapped multiple times by a subject near Auto Mall Pkwy and Osgood Rd. The subject also pushed over another victim's motorcycle and threw rocks and groceries at the victims. When officers arrived, the subject was running through the parking lot and climbed atop a parked vehicle. Officers escorted her off the hood of the vehicle and arrested her. She did not communicate coherently with officers. #240211008

DUI

On 2/8, a subject was pacing the Fremont Police Department lobby with clenched fists. He initially approached the lobby window, appearing heavily intoxicated, then barricaded himself in an interview room. Before officers arrived, he exited the building and drove away erratically, stopping in the nearby parking lot. An officer initiated a traffic stop, determined the subject was intoxicated, and arrested him. #240208045

Embezzlement

On 2/7, an officer responded to a hardware store on Ice House Ter regarding an employee (subject) who was embezzling from the store. The reporting party provided videos of the employee taking cash from the register on multiple occasions while working as a cashier. The officer arrested the subject. #240207028

Drunk in Public

On 2/8, officers responded to reports of a subject who appeared to be intentionally trying to get hit by passing vehicles in the intersection of Stevenson Blvd and Blacow Rd. Officers attempted to direct the subject out of the roadway, but he was uncooperative and refused to answer questions. He was determined to be under the influence, and officers arrested him. #240208052

Fremont Police Week In Review

February 6, 2024 - February 12, 2024

Robbery

On 2/6, employees from a pet store on Argonaut Way reported that two subjects stole items and threatened to assault staff if they were stopped. Upon arrival, officers detained the two subjects and brought them in for an interview. Officers found drugs and drug paraphernalia on one subject, but could not locate any stolen property on the subjects or in the parking lot. The subject found with drugs and drug paraphernalia was arrested, and the other subject was cited and released. #240206037

On 2/7, officers responded to a robbery of a mail carrier on 2nd St. Four subjects were arrested in this case. For additional details, please refer to our press release: February 9, 2024, Four Juvenile Suspects Arrested in Robbery of USPS Postal Worker - nixle.us/F74FZ

Suspicious Circumstances

On 2/11, an officer responded to a suspicious circumstance at a hospital on Mowry Ave, regarding a newborn baby that tested positive for fentanyl. The baby had been born the day before, and neither the mother nor the baby had left the hospital. The mother did not test positive for fentanyl, and the medical staff could not explain the exposure. #240211001

Vandalism

On 2/6, officers responded to a report of two subjects breaking into a community mailbox at an apartment complex on Presidio Way. Officers located the two subjects and detained them. No mail theft could be substantiated, but one subject was in possession of burglary tools and was positively identified as the one who had vandalized the mailbox. He was arrested, and the other subject was released. #240206017

Violation of a Protective Order

On 2/6, officers responded to a motel on Fremont Blvd for a family disturbance. The subject was in violation of a restraining order and had slashed the victim's tires. The subject had fled, but officers contacted the subject's mother, who drove him back to the scene, where he was arrested. #240206019
