Assault with a Deadly Weapon

On 2/19, officers responded to an assault with a deadly weapon at a convenience store on Central Ave. A subject had attacked two victims while they were sitting in a truck. The subject broke the windshield with a baseball bat. When one victim exited the vehicle, the subject struck him several times with the bat. Both victims were transported to a hospital, and the subject was not located. The subject was a former roommate of one of the victims. This case remains under investigation. #240219028

Battery

On 2/13, officers responded to a residence on Lake Arrowhead Ave regarding a victim who said his adult son had strangled him and thrown him against the wall. The victim was unresponsive when officers arrived. He was transported for medical care. The subject was on the roof of the home and was uncompliant with officers. He eventually surrendered and was arrested. #240213042

On 2/15, officers responded to the Family Resource Center regarding a customer (subject) who was screaming at staff members, threatening them, and refusing to leave. The subject was upset that she did not receive her unemployment check and was dissatisfied at the staff members who were working at the center. When officers arrived, they discovered that the subject had also assaulted a staff member with a pen. #240215045

Injury Collision

On 2/15, officers responded to a vehicle collision at Fremont Blvd and Mowry Ave. An ambulance was traveling through the intersection with lights and sirens when it collided with another vehicle. Some of the involved parties suffered mild injuries from the collision. This case remains under investigation. #240215017

Major Injury Collision

On 2/15, officers responded to a major injury collision in the 3100 block of Mowry Ave. One victim had been pinned against the wall by a vehicle and was suffering from severe injuries. Another victim sustained minor injuries from the collision. Fremont Fire Department responded for medical care, and the victim was transported to a hospital for treatment. The driver of the vehicle consented to a blood draw and was taken to a hospital. This case remains under investigation. #240215005

Fremont Police Week In Review

February 13, 2024 - February 19, 2024

Possession of a Controlled Substance

On 2/13, officers responded to a department store on Osgood Rd regarding a subject lying on the sidewalk near the driveway to the parking lot. The subject had several active arrest warrants and had several grams of fentanyl on his person. Officers arrested the subject. #240213027

Robbery

On 2/15, officers responded to a report of a robbery at a department store on Osgood Rd. The subject was stealing merchandise and threatening to shoot the reporting party. Officers found the subject outside the store and arrested him. Officers found illicit drugs on the subject but did not find a firearm. #240215006

Vandalism

On 2/13, officers responded to a bakery on Mission Blvd regarding a subject who was destroying the dining area, throwing food at people, making threats, and had stolen the tip jar. The subject was upset about receiving dirty change and was demanding a refund. Officers arrested her and returned the tip jar to the business. #240213024

Warrant Service

On 2/15, a caller reported that her daughter (subject) was causing a disturbance at a residence on Camden St. The subject was vandalizing items inside the residence and had kicked in the door to assault the reporting party's child. Officers discovered several outstanding warrants for the subject and arrested her. #240215036

Swatting Call

On 2/19, officers responded to a residence on Doane St regarding a subject who reported that he had just killed his mother and younger brother with a kitchen knife. As units surrounded the residence and instructed the subject to come out, the subject told officers he would kill himself and shoot officers if they approached the door. Dispatch found the reporting phone number was registered to a third-party phone company. Eventually, an elderly woman and other residents exited the building, and the residence was cleared. The woman's grandson had been playing video games online with a subject who had most likely used the grandson's address to create a false emergency report. #240219030
