Fremont Police Week In Review

August 6, 2024 - August 12, 2024

Carjacking

On 8/8, officers responded to reports of a subject who had parked his van in the middle of the street near Mission Blvd and Mohave Dr and was outside yelling at cars. One caller reported that the subject had used a knife to attempt to carjack their vehicle. Officers arrived to see the subject driving away but located him nearby and arrested him. #240808019

Mental Health Hold

On 8/13, officers responded to the intersection of Bay St and Chapel Way regarding a subject who had stolen the reporting party's license plate. The subject was standing in the street, throwing trash cans into the street, and screaming. Officers contacted the subject, who expressed a desire to harm himself. He was placed on a mental health hold. #240813002

Robbery

On 8/11, officers responded to a bar on Fremont Blvd regarding a robbery. A victim had been robbed at knifepoint while waiting outside the bar. The subject stole cash from the victim and fled in a vehicle. This case remains under investigation. #240811004

Trespassing

On 8/8, officers responded to a storage facility on the 45400 block of Industrial Dr. The reporting party had evicted her tenant (subject) the week before, and the subject was confrontational during the eviction. The subject returned to the facility and broke into the unit he had been evicted from. Officers responded and arrested the subject. #240808036

On 8/14, officers were dispatched to a hospital on Mowry Ave regarding a subject who entered the emergency room and said he needed treatment for a stab wound. The subject would not let staff treat him, so he threw a rock at security and then left before officers arrived. The subject walked to a hospital on Civic Center Dr and made the same complaint, attempting to enter a restricted area of the hospital. Officers discovered the subject was on probation as a sex offender and was out of compliance. Officers arrested the subject. #240814005
