Fremont Police Week In Review

June 21, 2022 - June 27, 2022

Robbery and Assault with a Deadly Weapon

on 6/27, officers were dispatched to Marshalls at the Fremont Hub for a report of a suspect inside the store chasing people with a machete. The reporting party indicated the suspect used force to steal merchandise from the store earlier in the evening. Prior to officers arriving, the suspect left on foot. Officers located the suspect near Fremont and Beacon and the suspect surrendered without incident. The weapon was located and was determined to be a hatchet. The suspect out of Fremont was found to have an outstanding no-bail felony warrant for violating his parole for robbery. #220627035

Vehicle Pursuit

on 6/26, an officer located a stolen vehicle in the area of N/B 880 and Mowry and recognized the driver who is someone with outstanding warrants. The officer initiated a short vehicle pursuit on N/B 880, which terminated at Alvarado/880 after the vehicle struck the center median and became disabled. The driver and two other subjects fled in multiple directions. A witness reported seeing one of the subjects ran into Lucky's at Charter Square. Based on the possibility of the outstanding subjects being armed, Lucky's was immediately evacuated. Officers located one suspect inside the store and he was positively identified by the witness as fleeing from the suspect vehicle. A citizen from a nearby residence later reported seeing another suspect getting into an Uber. A perimeter was set up with drone and K-9 deployment. Units from Union City, California Highway Patrol, and San Jose Police Air Unit assisted with the search. Inside the vehicle, officers located an assault rifle, loaded AR15 magazine, an extended Glock magazine, and one of the suspect's driver license. One adult suspect out of Fremont was arrested. #220626027
