Burglary - Commercial

On 4/15, officers responded to an in-progress commercial burglary on Osgood Rd. A community member reported seeing three subjects enter a gated construction site. Multiple units, including the UAV (drone) team, responded and set up a perimeter. Two subjects emerged and fled on foot through an open field. Officers were able to detain both subjects without incident. The third subject later emerged, attempted to escape, and ultimately surrendered. The reporting party positively identified all three subjects. Three adult subjects out of Fremont were arrested. #230415011

Burglary - Residential

On 4/15, officers responded to a residential burglary on Abuelo Tr. Two subjects entered the victim's unlocked vehicle and used the garage door opener to access the victim's garage. The victim confronted both subjects as they made entry into the garage. Both subjects then fled in a vehicle. This case remains under investigation. #230415003

Drunk in Public

On 4/16, officers responded to an apartment complex on Glenmoor Dr to a report of two subjects fighting the parking lots. Officers arrived and contacted one of the heavily intoxicated subjects, and the other subject fled on foot. One adult subject out of Fremont was arrested for being drunk in public. #230417004

Mental Health Evaluation Hold

On 4/16, a subject called to advise that he was inside a pharmacy at the Fremont and wanted an escort outside because people were waiting to harm him. The store employee also contacted FPD to report that the subject had armed himself with scissors and pulled them out whenever someone walked near him. Officers arrived and contacted the subject. Ultimately, an adult subject out of Fremont was placed on a mental health hold. #230417005
