April 25, 2023, Fatal Traffic Collision

On April 25, 2023, at approximately 9:52 p.m., Fremont police received multiple 9-1-1 calls regarding a collision involving a vehicle and a pedestrian at the intersection of Peralta Blvd and Camden St. Fremont Police and Fremont Fire personnel responded to the collision.

When officers arrived, they saw the pedestrian lying on the roadway. Fremont Fire rendered aid, but he succumbed to his injuries. Officers determined that the pedestrian was riding a bicycle during the collision. Preliminary investigation revealed the bicyclist was traveling on Camden St, and the vehicle was traveling on Peralta Blvd.

The vehicle's driver remained on the scene and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Alameda County Coroner's Office will determine the identity of the deceased.

This is Fremont's third fatal traffic collision in 2023.

Fremont Police Traffic Investigators responded to the scene and are investigating the cause of the collision.
